SPEAKERS

Alfred J. Landegger, Esq. earned his B.A. in 1975 at California State University Northridge and earned his J.D., in 1978 AT Whittier College School of Law and was admitted to the Bar in 1978. Alfred is an advocate for employer rights and for than two decades, through education, prevention, and innovative problem-solving, his firm has worked with employers to maintain a balance that can keep a company healthy and profitable.

Michael S. Lavenant, Esq. earned his B.A. in 1994 at California State University, Fullerton and his J.D. in 1998 at Southwestern University School of Law and was Member and Chairman of Hispanic Law Student Association. Michael was admitted to the Bar in 1998, U.S. Districts of California and has extensive experience representing employers in all areas of employment disputes.

PRESENTATION

Alfred J. Landegger and Michael Lavenant are well known employment and labor lawyers with the firm of Landegger Baron Lavenant. Please join us for a discussion on Wage and Hour Class Actions.

The greatest area of legal exposure facing California employers is class action litigation claiming misclassification of exempt employees, overtime violations, rest period violations, meal periods violations, mileage reimbursement, final paycheck violations and failure to provide a proper itemized statement. The presentation will update you on the current state of the law, recent cases and how to resolve and settle class actions through effective mediation prior to class certification.
