Joe Holland, County Clerk, Recorder & Assessor Santa Barbara County

Assuming the duties of County Clerk, Recorder and Assessor on January 6, 2003, Mr. Holland currently manages a $13M budget and 120 staff employees encompassing four Divisions: Assessor, Elections, Recorder and Information Services.

Mr. Holland's Educational credentials include a Bachelors Degree in Business Economics and a Masters Degree in Economics - both from UC Santa Barbara. He graduated from the UCLA Executive Program at the Anderson School of Business in 2001.

Mr. Holland holds the designation of a Certified Public Finance Officer (CPFO) from the nationally recognized Government Finance Officers Association. Other professional certifications include a Real Estate Broker license with the State of California and certification as an Advanced Appraiser with the California Board of Equalization.

Active in the community, Mr. Holland serves as a longtime United Way of Santa Barbara County volunteer for over 15 years, with ten years in a leadership position on the Allocations Committee. He also serves as a volunteer board member on the FEMA Emergency Food and Shelter Program.

A resident of Santa Barbara County since 1978, he and his wife Kathy and their children Scott, Bridget and Michelle live in Goleta. In his spare time, he enjoys exercising and spending time with his family.
